A Report from The Orphan's Home was read and adopted as follows:—

MISSISSIPPI ORPHAN'S HOME.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

BRETHREN:—As directors of the Mississippi Orphan's Home, we would respectfully report that the work of the Home for the past year has been very satisfactory.

Rev. W. S. Harrison has been in charge and reports that during the year thirty-six children have been admitted, and twenty-seven adopted or taken out by guardians, leaving sixty-one in the home at present. One hundred and sixty-two have been cared for since the Home was opened, ninety-nine of whom have been taken out either by Christian homes or guardians.

We report that the Board of School Commissioners of Yalobusha County have established a free school at the Orphanage; which gives us the benefit of free school at the Home for four months; and we have a ten months' school taught by a consecrated and intelligent young man.

Seven of our girls are being educated by our Colleges free of charge, viz: Grenada College, three; Port Gibson, one; East Mississippi, one; and Whitworth College, two; for which we wish to express our hearty thanks.

The Manager reports that the health of the Home has been remarkably good, there having been no need for a physician in four months.

This is not only gratifying, but shows with what care the Manager has looked after the interests of the children.

We are very much indebted to Dr. L. T. Fox for service rendered as physician; also to Bros. S. S. Spencer and J. G. McGowan for faithful services rendered and their aid given the Board during the year.

Seeing the need of a cottage to be used in case of serious or contagious diseases, we have erected a cottage at a cost of $1,300.00; but, owing to a failure on the part of the contractor to comply with his contract, the same has not been accepted.

Amount of cash on hand at last Conference was $300.85. Since then we have received from the North Mississippi Conference $3,010.93; and the Mississippi Conference, $2,746.52. We have expended $6,039.50, leaving balance in the hands of the Treasurer, $18.80.

There are claims outstanding amounting to $969.82. We regret to report that all claims have not been met in full by the meeting of the Conference; but there is in the hands of the Financial Agent and Manager enough to reduce this to about $200.00.

The endowment fund of $1000.00 is undisturbed.

We are glad to say the religious instruction of the children has been carefully guarded by the Manager, a ripe Christian and experienced minister, under whose instruction and influence twenty have united with the Church.

The Agent, Rev. W. T. Griffin, has visited eighty-six churches and distributed eleven hundred and twenty-five circular letters and otherwise represented the interests of the Home and we feel that his work has been highly satisfactory.

After much deliberation we have concluded it would be best to make a change in the system of management by combining the Manager and Field Agent into one and authorizing him to employ a suitable man at a salary not to exceed $25.00 and board to teach the school and superintend the farm, thus practically saving the salary of one man.

W. T. Griffin, our present Field Agent, was elected Manager and Field Agent and we ask that the Bishop appoint him to this work.

As the time of Rev. A. F. Watkins and W. M. Thornton expires, we respectfully ask your body to elect their successors.

(Signed,) J. H. SHERARD,
R. W. JONES.

Winona, Miss., Dec. 4th, 1901.

Upon motion of G. S. Harmon, A. F. Watkins and W. M. Thorton were elected their own successors as Directors of the Orphan's Home.

Rev. W. J. Compston, Pastor of the McComb City Presbyterian Church, was introduced to the Conference.

The name of N. B. Young was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Superannuated Relation.

The order of the day having arrived, Question Four, was called:—"Who are admitted into full connection?" The class to be admitted into full connection was called forward, viz: John Robert Jones, Joseph Winston Campbell, William Leroy Hightower, Earl Leslie Alford, John Jay Golden. The Bishop delivered his charge to them; they properly answered the disciplinary questions propounded to them, and by vote of the Conference they were admitted into full connection.

The following resolution concerning Memoir of Dr. C. G. Andrews was adopted:

WHEREAS, The lamented and sainted Dr. Charles Green Andrews was for nearly a half century a member of the Mississippi Conference; and,

WHEREAS, for many years he was the Secretary of the Conference, discharging these arduous and delicate duties efficiently and faithfully; and,

WHEREAS, for many years he represented this Conference in the General Conference and upon the Board of Missions of our great Southern Methodism; and,

WHEREAS, in every capacity he served the Church, as Pastor, Presiding Elder, Secretary of the Conference, or Representative in our delegate bodies, he rendered a high order of service; therefore,

Resolved, That we request Bishop C. B. Galloway to prepare a memorial volume of his life and ministry amongst us.

FIFTH DAY—MEMORIAL SESSION.

MCCOMB CITY, MISS., DEC. 15, 1901.

The Conference met in the Methodist Church at 3 P. M., H. W. Featherstun, by request of Bishop Morrison, in the chair.

H. R. Singleton conducted the opening religious exercises.

Question Nineteen was called:—"What preachers have died during the past year?" Answer: H. B. Trevilion, W. M. Stevens, R. W. Bailey, W. B. Hines, P. A. Johnston, E. A. Flowers.

H. G. Hawkins read a Memoir of H. B. Trevilion, prepared by H. W. Featherstun. C. McDonald, T. L. Mellen, T. B. Holloman, C. A. Powell, I. L. Peebles, W. G. Forsythe and J. P. Drake made remarks upon the life and character of Bro. Trevilion and the Memoir was adopted as follows:

REV. H. B. TREVILION.

Hiram B. Trevilion was born Jan. 29th, 1850; was married to Miss Alice J. Vardeman, Dec. 28th, 1871; joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in August, 1889; was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference in December, 1890; was ordained Deacon by Bishop Key, Dec. 21st, 1893; and died at Columbia, Miss., Dec. 28th, 1900.

These meager data give the bare outlines of a true, brave life that came among us and toiled with us for ten years. In 1891, he served Live Oak Circuit, in 1892, East Baton Rouge Circuit and in 1893, Tallisheek Circuit. All of these are in the "Florida parishes" of Louisiana, then a part of our Conference, but now in the Louisiana Conference. During this year, 1893, Rev. John A. Ellis, pastor at Moss Point, died; the pastor at Ellisville was sent to fill his place and Bro. Trevilion was removed from Tallisheek to Ellisville. He was returned to Ellisville Station for 1894. In 1895 he was on the Eastabuchie Circuit, and at Augusta in 1896. He was at Columbia in 1897, 1898 and 1899.

In 1900 he was at Fernwood. About the middle of the year, he became the innocent victim of a dark and dastardly conspiracy and a cruel and cowardly assault, which left him so bruised and beaten that he never recovered. He had to be relieved of his charge; and was carried by his family back to Columbia, his former charge, where true and tried friends cared for him until his death.

At our last Conference, which closed but eleven days before his death, he was placed upon the roll of the Superannuated, the "roll of honor."

As the end drew near he commissioned his loved ones to bear to his brethren of the Mississippi Conference this message: "Tell them that I shall be on the other side to welcome them home as they come; for I am praying the dear Father to take me home out of all my sufferings." His last words were: "Peace! peace! peace!" Thus passed this true, sweet-spirited, good man from a Gethsemane of suffering to the paradise of our ascended Lord.

Bro. Trevilion was more than what we term merely "a good preacher," his sermons were much above the ordinary—above those generally heard from our pulpits; and had he come among us when twenty years of age instead of forty, he would undoubtedly have ranked among the highest in usefulness and ability.

H. W. Featherstun read a Memoir of Wm. Stevens. H. W. Featherstun, J. M. Weems, W. J. Dawson, C. W. Crisler, G. A. Guice, T. L. Mellen, W. J. Ferguson, and H. M. Ellis made remarks, and the Memoir was adopted as follows:

REV. W. M. STEVENS.

Wm. Micon Stevens, son of Capt. James H. and Mrs. Olive A. Stevens, was born in Bastrop, La., Dec. 11, 1864, and died in Meridian, Miss., July, 22nd, 1901. Baptized into the Protestant Episcopal Church, he was in due time confirmed as a member of that church. In 1885 he entered Kavanaugh College, and at a revival held in the autumn made a public profession of religion. A year later he joined our church; and on April 2nd, 1887, was licensed to preach. In the summer of 1889, Providence Circuit having become vacant, he was appointed by the Presiding Elder to the vacancy. In December of that year he was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference, and appointed to South Warren Circuit. He served this, his first charge, for four years, during which time it passed from a mission to a self-supporting charge with two new churches and a nice, new parsonage, paying its pastor $600 per year. This remarkable success in his first charge gave promise of large usefulness, and suggested unusual ability and a consecration in keeping with his calling. His next charge was Rocky Springs, which he served for three years. Thence he was sent to Harriston, where he remained but one year. From there he went to Lake, where he remained three years. His last charge was West End, Meridian, which he served half a year, when God took him.

He was ordained deacon by Bishop Hendrix, Dec., 13th, 1891, and elder by Bishop Keener, Dec. 16th, 1894. He was married to Miss Sophie R. Ball, of Tylertown, Miss., on Dec. 26th, 1889. She, with three children, survives him; two others are with him in "the house of many mansions."

He entered the Conference before he had gotten a diploma, feeling that he hardly had time and means to complete a college course. Possibly the step in his case was a wise one; but realizing at a later date that he needed some further fitting for his life-work, with the endorsement of his plan by his Presiding Elder, he went, last year, to Chicago and entered the famous Bible Training School founded by Mr. Moody. In reply to a suggestion that he purposed becoming a traveling evangelist, he clearly stated that such was not his plan; but that he had gone to Chicago merely that he might better fit himself to be a pastor. A pastor-evangelist was his ideal: he longed to save souls, and felt that he could best do this as a pastor.

If there was one feature of this strong, manly character that we are studying, more marked than any other, it was a quiet, self-composed, superior courage, "the courage of his convictions," a courage as foreign to parade as it was to fear. Very marked, also, was his fidelity to duty—more properly his love for the beautiful service of his Lord. His piety was beautiful. Quiet, unassuming, undemonstrative, he was not inclined to make public the sacred secrets of his soul; but we, who knew him best, read in his life the unmistakable indications of his close walk with God. His ideals were high, his purposes pure and strong, his fidelity to right and duty unswerving, his courage undaunted, his piety beautiful and manly, his faith in Christ unfaltering, his loyalty to the Church unimpeachable, and his hope of heaven undimmed.

When the summons came it found him ready. Conscious of his approaching death he spoke calmly of a preference to stay and carry on the work he was doing, but declared himself ready and willing to go if it was God's will. Thus he passed from us, in the prime of a stalwart manhood, and from a sphere of increasing usefulness.

Why is it that just when his family needed him most, that just when he had reached that long-toiled-for point in his career where he was best fitted for his work, that just as he was stepping to a higher plane of usefulness, he must lay it all down? It is a strange providence. We may not understand it now; but we shall understand it when

“ We shall know as we are known
In the dawning
Of the morning
When the mists have rolled away. ”

Of fine physique and manly bearing he was a kingly specimen of young manhood. Pure in life, consecrated in heart, high in his purposes, gifted in intellect and attractive in manner, his was a most promising future; but God suddenly turned that hopeful future heavenward, and all is well.

A. F. Watkins read the following memoir of R. W. Bailey, prepared by H. W. Featherstun. Remarks were made by T. L. Mellen, Prof. J. A. Moore, J. E. Gray, A. F. Watkins, L. S. Jones, J. W. Brown, J. W. Campbell and the memoir was adopted.

REV. R. W. BAILEY.

Robert Watkins Bailey, the son of Henry Clay and Harriet Amanda Bailey, was born in Colusa County, California, on Dec. 12, 1861; and died at Long Beach, Los Angeles County, California, Feb. 9, 1901.

With the exception of two terms at public school and two at private school, his education was gotten at home and in a printing office. He educated himself and he did it well.

He was converted at Wilmington, Cal., in 1878 under the ministry of Rev. A. M. Campbell; was licensed to preach on Oct. 22, 1882; and was admitted on trial into the Los Angeles Conference within a few days. He was ordained deacon Oct. 26, 1884, and elder, Oct. 31, 1886.

His first charge was Bakersfield, a mission in the mountains, where he was compelled to toil as a sheep herder for three months for a livelihood. The next year he was sent to Arroyo Grande. Subsequently he served New Port, New River, Pasadena and San Diego.

In 1892, he was transferred to the Mississippi Conference, and was appointed for the ensuing year to Woodville. In 1894 and 1895 he served Hazlehurst. He was then appointed Conference Colporteur and was domiciled at Jackson. When Dr. DuBose was elected General Secretary of Epworth Leagues in 1898, Bro. Bailey was appointed in his stead to the First Church in Jackson. He was re-appointed to this charge at the ensuing conference. Of his ministry in this charge, Bishop Galloway has thus written for a Jackson paper:

"To this community he especially endeared himself, on account of heroic and unwearied service during the prevalence of yellow fever. It is no disparagement to others to say that no one equalled him in the number of hours, day and night, given to the afflicted, the nurses secured, and other attentions shown. Never having been exposed to the disease before, he seemed to know no fear, and with an almost reckless disregard of himself, went wherever there was a person in distress. I often tried to restrain him from unnecessary exposure, and sought to shield him by tender of personal service, but without avail. He felt that duty called him and that voice he was ever quick to hear and speedily obey. His name will always be tenderly cherished in many afflicted homes in this city."

His last pastorate was Moss Point. Early in the year a deadly malady developed. He sought relief in Colorado, and hoped that he had thwarted the destroyer. He returned to his work; but the malady returned and drove him again to Colorado; but finding no relief there, he hastened to his father's home in California, where he died.

One who has known him more intimately and for a longer period than has any member of this Conference thus writes of him:

"I knew him well and loved him much. I knew him when a boy in his home by the western sea, and was entertained in his father's house, and met his mother and sisters.

"'Wat,' as we called him, was then a boy about seventeen years of age. I afterwards preached to him, when he taught public school at Los Bolsas, and was associated with him some years later when he was admitted on trial into the Los Angeles Conference. When in 1892 he came to Mississippi he was appointed to Woodville, where I was at the time in charge of Edward McGehee College. Thus he became my intimate associate, as well as my successor and predecessor in the Woodville pastorate. Since then, as fellow-workers in the Mississippi Conference, our relations have been close and cordial. Thus associated, I came to know him well, and, knowing him, loved him.

"No man among us thought more profoundly, and mixed with the old things of preaching more that was new and, in presentation, original. No man ever more fully obeyed Paul's injunction: 'Prove all things, hold fast to that which is good; nor did even Lucretia Mott herself cling more firmly to her own dictum: 'Truth for authority and not authority for truth,' than did this brave, conscientious young thinker in the Methodist ministry. His learning was broad as his thought was deep. He read much, read rapidly, read widely, read wisely, and remembered well.

"His intense logical acumen made him a natural polemic of high order. His native kindness of heart and suavity of manner added force to his arguments. I think that the strongest polemic effort that I have heard in twenty years on the floor of an Annual Conference came from his lips. His powers of analysis and illustration and appeal displayed on this occasion could hardly be excelled.

"Though thoughtful as a philosopher and learned as a sage, he was as transparently simple-hearted as a child. He seemed to be utterly void of egotism, and altogether unconscious of his large ability. In his family he was like a big boy—playfully free, yet utterly without any effort to be playful. With his friends, his closest friends, he was frank and easy and kind and perfectly natural. His unconventionality of manner, though so perfectly natural to him, was so uncommon (alas!) as to make him appear almost eccentric. He despised cant as if were sin, and was almost eccentrically unconventional. He would not wear clerical clothes, and he shunned 'clerical airs' and 'preacher tones' and avoided everything that might in any way be thought of as sanctimonious by the most critical. To me his unconventional naturalness was most refreshing, and, as I came to know and love him more, became a chief charm in his delightful personality.

His religious experiences were sacred secrets with God. It did not seem to occur to him that any one could be at all interested in them, and he, therefore, never thrust them upon anybody. This unusual reserve was so perfectly natural that no one seemed to expect anything else from him. Thus, in his life and in his preaching he so thoroughly 'hid behind the cross' that his personality was forgotten, but the Christ he preached was remembered.

"His capacity for work was marvelous. Slender, wiry, nervous, he moved quickly and never seemed to tire. Not even John Wesley could do more in a day than he. It required a large pastorate to fully occupy his time. Possibly he did too much. Certainly he did not rust. 'It is better to wear out than to rust out.' Now that he rests, his 'works do follow' him. The world is better because he was such a tireless toiler.

"Such, as I saw him, was my friend and brother, the brave, buoyant, learned and gifted, good and truly great young man who was taken from us ere he had reached his prime. Had he lived to reach that prime, he would have been known as a great man.

"As he was my predecessor as well as successor at Woodville, so he was my immediate predecessor at Moss Point, my present pastorate. The aroma of his splendid life lingers here. Although he came at the beginning of his invalidism, and was able to do but little work here, the people learned to love him, and some of them became bound very close to him. My life is richer because I knew him. Others share with me this feeling. 'He, being dead, yet speaketh,' not merely in the strong sermons he preached, but also in the memory of a manly life cast upon a kingly plane."

Another who knew him well thus speaks of him:

"Mr. Bailey was a man of remarkable intellectuality. Those who knew him longest and most intimately appreciated to admiration his striking originality, the incisiveness of his intellect, the quaintness of his humor, and his rare power of lucid and terse statement. At times his brief sentences were brilliant epigrams, full of the choicest wisdom. If he had had a rich, well-modulated voice, with some histrionic talent and the grace of an orator, he would have ranked among the greatest and most attractive preachers of our country.

"As it was, those who had trained minds, and were in search of intellectual and spiritual enrichment, heard him with increasing delight and edification. Without doubt he was a man of unusual ability. And to intimate friends he was an attractive personality. A man of wide reading, accurate memory and rare literary taste, he was charming in conversation and instructive in public discourse. Some of his expositions of Scripture I shall retain in heart and memory through life.

"Though his physique was frail, and was held toward the last in the clasp of an insidious malady, yet it was difficult to think of my friend as an invalid. Active, hopeful, self-forgetful, he rarely mentioned his ailment, and never spoke of it as other than a slight temporary hindrance to work, of which he would soon be rid. Thus death seemed to take him almost unawares, although he was an invalid for a full year; but it found him ready. Bravely he met his 'Pilot face to face,'

'And there was no moaning of the bar
When he put out to sea.'"

He was married Oct. 20, 1891, to Miss Fannie Connor, of Natchez, Miss., who, with three children, survives him.

J. M. Weems read the following Memoir of P. A. Johnston, prepared by D. P. Bradford, and spoke of his last days, announcing that Bro. Johnston had directed that $500.00 of his life insurance go to the Mississippi Conference Endowment Fund, to be known as the "P. A. Johnston Memorial Fund." Ira B. Robertson, G. S. Harmon, R. B. Downer, R. H. Barr, G. A. Guice, and J. T. Nicholson made remarks. The Memoir was adopted.

REV. PINCKNEY A. JOHNSTON.

Rev. Pinckney A. Johnston, son of Gideon and Beulah Johnston was born in Cayuga, Hinds county, Miss., July 24, 1839; joined the M. E. Church, South, in 1856; was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth as it is in Christ Jesus, in August, 1858. While attending Centenary College, at Jackson, La., he, with several others, was licensed to preach in 1859. Rev. Barnabas Pipkin was then Presiding Elder of the district.

Bro. Johnston was received on trial in the Mississippi Conference in 1861; was ordained deacon by Bishop J. O. Andrews in 1863; was ordained elder by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, Dec. 3, 1871. He entered the Confederate Army as a volunteer in April, 1862, and in August of the same year was appointed chaplain. This relation he sustained until the cessation of hostilities. His experiences of these three years were rarely ever mentioned, even to most intimate friends. Soon after his return home he was married to Miss Hattie Siebe. Of this union five children were born. In 1866 he did not take work from the Conference, but spent much of his time in protracted meetings, where he was always efficient help. In 1867 he was junior preacher on Cayuga Circuit. He did not take work in 1868. In 1869 he served Vaiden Circuit; in 1870 the Kosciusko Circuit. That year the North Mississippi Conference was formed. He remained in this new Conference in 1871, serving Kosciusko and Bethel. In December of this year he came back to his old Conference. He was stationed at Hazlehurst in 1872, and in 1873, at his own request, he was appointed to Gallman Mission. In 1874-5 he was on Providence Circuit; in 1876 he was put on the supernumerary list; in 1877, he served Georgetown Circuit; in 1878, Caseyville Circuit. It was during this year that she who had been the cheer and sunshine of the parsonage home was called to the life beyond. In 1879 he served Rankin Charge; in 1880, he was field agent for Whitworth Female College. But in the itinerant work, either as pastor or presiding elder, did he find the field alone that was congenial to his life. Jan. 14, 1880, he was married to Miss Mary E. Kelly, who, in his after life of faithful work, followed by some years of suffering, has been to him all that a wife could be. She, with four of the children—all Christians, and useful members of the church to which he gave his life—survive to rejoice in the life of such a husband and father. In 1881-82-83-84 he served Madison Circuit; in 1885, the Flora Circuit; 1886-87, East Feliciana Circuit; 1888-89-90-91, he was presiding elder of the Brandon District; in 1892-93-94, he was on the Woodville District. The General Conference of 1894 transferred a part of the territory embraced within this district to the Louisiana Conference; so he went with his district parsonage into this (Louisiana) Conference. In 1895 he was presiding elder on the Baton Rouge District; in 1896-7, he was stationed at Homer, La. Realizing that the hitherto strong physical man was gradually yielding to the effects of palsy, which had crept upon him, he asked for a superannuated relation in December, 1897. After spending awhile at Hazlehurst he came to Meridian, where three of the children were living. His brethren of the Mississippi Conference, appreciating the fact that his strong life had been given to this Conference asked that he be transferred to us, that we might minister to him in his afflictions. His prayers with his benedictions, had been ours, and we claimed the privilege of having his name upon our honor roll. Since coming to Meridian he has been a regular attendant at East End Church until his health prevented. The pastors of our churches here have visited him regularly. He was confined to his bed most of the time during this year. At times he would exclaim, "I am in a rapture of joy." During the last few days of his life his visions were glorious. At one time he started to tell Sister Johnston what he had just seen, but pausing a moment, said, "No, I won't tell it; the people will not believe it." The last nine days of his life he refused to take any nourishment, saying it only added to his suffering. For three days before the end came he could not take even a swallow of water. Finally, about 4:30 P. M., Sept. 26, he went sweetly into the beyond. Bros. Guice, Weems and Alford were at his side. I had been with him almost constantly for three days. I never saw greater devotion, nor more untiring attention given to a husband and father. The next day after his death he was buried from our East End Church, in which service the resident pastors, with the presiding elder and Bro. D. G. W. Ellis, took part. Then we laid him to rest in Magnolia Cemetery, in the northern part of the city. Thus has passed from our midst one of our most efficient workmen, a strong revival preacher, at one time a fine singer, and a man of unusual power in prayer. We esteem it an honor that Dr. C. G. Andrews and Rev. P. A. Johnston preached their last sermons from our East End pulpit.

J. A. B. Jones read the Memoir of W. B. Hines. J. P. Drake, D. C. Langford and R. D. Norsworthy spoke in Bro. Hines's memory; and the Memoir was adopted, as follows:

REV. W. B. HINES.

Rev. William B. Hines, the son of John Henderson Hines and Rhoda Glass, was born near Huntsville, Alabama, Feb. 8, 1819. His parents were from Albermarle County, Va., his father was of English descent and a local preacher. Maj. Hines, of revolutionary fame, his grandfather, witnessed Cornwallis surrender his sword to Gen. Washington, Oct. 19, 1781, at Yorktown, Va.

William B. Hines was converted during a camp meeting near Grenada, Miss., 1835. He was happily united in marriage with Miss Jane Fletcher Coppedge, of Grenada, Miss., in February, 1841. He was licensed to preach in Lexington, Miss., in 1845; recommended to the Mississippi Annual Conference in 1846; and in December of that year was admitted on trial into the traveling connection and appointed by Bishop Andrews to Bayou Sara, La. His second appointment was Yazoo Circuit with James A. Godfrey. At the Conference in Vicksburg, December 1848, he was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Paine. He was ordained elder by Bishop Paine in December, 1851 and appointed to Jackson, La. At the Conference of December, 1852, he was located at his own request; was readmitted in 1853; and continued in the regular effective itinerant work until literally worn out and forced to superannuate. He served circuits, stations and districts in all portions of our Conference: Greenville District, 1857-61; Natchez District, 1861-65; Meridian District, 1871-74; Brandon District, 1875; and Jackson District, 1876-77. From 1877 to 1892 he traversed nearly the whole Conference territory, serving Brownsville, Waynesboro, Lauderdale, Summit, Adams, Scotland, Providence, Binnsville, Vossburg, and Lake.

At the Conference of 1892 he was enrolled a superannuate. He died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Mollie L. Reed, in Summit, Miss., at 5 a. m., April 24, 1901. His wife, who had been his companion, counselor and comfort, truly a God-given "help meet" for fifty-nine years, preceded him, April 19, 1900, to the reward promised.

He was buried in Gloster, Miss., April 25, 1901, from the Methodist Church. Special memorial services were conducted in that church by Rev. J. A. B. Jones, May 5, 1901. He was the father of ten children, of whom six have died and four yet live.

The world and the church will not, cannot, know until the resurrection of the saints what sacrifices of personal and domestic comfort and financial interest William B. Hines quietly endured to serve his generation. He attained distinguished eminence as a preacher, pastor and adviser. A polished Christian gentleman, with clear perception, deep convictions and strong utterance, remarkably powerful in prayer, a consistent, joyous Christian, an efficient preacher and pastor—"After he had served his own generation by the will of God fell on sleep and was laid unto his fathers."

J. A. B. JONES.

J. A. B. Jones read the following Memoir of E. A. Flowers, and remarks were made by F. M. Williams, R. D. Nosworthy, J. W. Brown, C. McDonald and W. M. Sullivan. The Memoir was adopted.

REV. E. A. FLOWERS.

Rev. Ephraim A. Flowers was born in Franklin County, Miss., Jan. 26, 1826, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. F. Chapman, in Wesson, Miss., at 9 P. M., April 28, 1901, and was buried in the Flowers graveyard near Cool Springs Church, Franklin County, Miss., April, 30, 1901. Six children, twenty-seven grand-children, five great-grand-children and his second wife survive.

Ephraim Flowers, from his childhood, was commended for his scrupulous fidelity, indomitable energy and dauntless courage. Early in life he obeyed the call of mercy, duty and privilege, gave his heart to God and joined the Methodist Church. The vows he then assumed the covenant he entered into, he kept sacred and inviolate. His religious experience was clear, scriptural, robust. He entered actively into church work and early gave assurance of ability for great usefulness, possessing unusual gifts in prayer, song and exhortation.

He was admitted on trial in the Mississippi Annual Conference in December, 1853; into full connection and ordained deacon, December, 1855; completed the required course of study on schedule time and was ordained elder in December, 1857. His early educational advantages were distressingly limited, his labors abundant, yet he "brought up," his four years' course of study, passed creditable examinations, continued to make proficiency and was a popular and useful preacher and pastor.

In 1875 and 1876 he was supernumerary on account of failing health; 1877-1880, again effective; 1881-86, superannuated; 1887, served Roxie; 1888-89, superannuated; 1890, served North Wilklnson; 1891, supernumerary; and 1892 to time of his death in 1901, superannuated.

Serving missions to negro slaves, country and city congregations, or enduring disablement by ill health, he ever maintained a beautiful, consistent, Christian character, sunshine in his soul, "full of faith and the Holy Ghost."

The long evening twilight—ten years a superannuate—preceding the close on earth of such a life, could not be other than cloudless, serene, triumphant.

J. A. B. JONES.

Song was interspersed in the service; and the Memorial meeting closed with the benediction pronounced by D. C. Langford.

SIXTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

McCOMB CITY, MISS., DEC. 16, 1901.

The Conference met at the Methodist Church at 8:30 A. M., Bishop Morrison in the chair.

C. McDonald conducted the opening devotional exercises, reading the fifteenth Psalm, leading in prayer, and announcing Hymn 106, "Rock of Ages Cleft for Me."

The Minutes of Saturday's session and of the Memorial session of Sunday afternoon were read, corrected and approved.

Question Six was called:—"Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?" The Bishop announced the transfer of W. H. Mounger from the Indian Mission Conference and J. W. Lewis from the Louisville Conference.

C. W. Crisler read the report of the Committee on Publishing Interests, which, after amendment, was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

To the Bishop and members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—We, your Committee on Publishing Interests beg to report as follows:

PUBLISHING HOUSE.

The report of the Book Agents for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1901, shows a gratifying condition of the Publishing House. The volume of business continues to increase both in Dallas and in Nashville. After deducting $1,447.30 loss on the Methodist Review and $6,249.33. charged against the Epworth League Department, there remains a net gain in assets of $37,426.65, which is a fair increase over last year.

GENERAL ORGAN.

The Nashville Christian Advocate is a most excellent periodical and merits our hearty support and most liberal patronage. We regret that it is not more widely read throughout the connection. We endorse unreservedly the management of Dr. Hoss.

THE METHODIST REVIEW.

This periodical is not surpassed by any of its kind anywhere. It should be more widely circulated. We regret that it is published at considerable loss.

REVIEW OF MISSIONS.

This is a superior publication and should be in every home in Southern Methodism. Surely no preacher can afford to be without it.

THE EPWORTH ERA.

This paper is well edited and is reaching a class of readers otherwise unprovided for by our Church. It ought to have better support.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL LITERATURE.

Our Sunday-school Literature is unsurpassed by literature of a similar kind in any church. We heartily commend to our preachers the recent action of the General Sunday-school Board in its arrangement for the organization and equipment of "The Bible Teacher's Study Circle" and earnestly urge them to interest superintendents and teachers in this advanced movement in Sunday-school work.

THE NEW ORLEANS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

It is with gratification that we note the progress of our own Conference paper. It is our candid opinion that the Advocate has never been more ably edited during its long and illustrious history. We rejoice in its healthy financial condition.

We recommend the re-appointment of Revs. R. J. Jones, L. Carley and A. F. Watkins as Publishing Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

H. R. SINGLETON, Chairman,

CHARLES. W. CRISLER, Secretary.

Question Twenty was resumed: The character of P. Howard was passed, and his name was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuated relation.

H. W. Featherstun read a report from the Committee on Memorials to the General Conference, which, after being amended, was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS.

Your Committee on Memorials to the General Conference beg leave to report that the following proposed Memorials have been before us:

1st. A Memorial offered by W. L. C. Hunnicutt, J. A. B. Jones and others, looking to the election by the Quarterly Conference of a steward for each church to assist the pastor in raising the collections ordered by the Annual Conference; or to some method of relieving the pastor of the burden of these collections.

We recommend non-concurrence.

2nd. A Memorial offered by J. P. Drake and A. F. Watkins looking to a change of the Restrictive Rules whereby it may be possible to reach a fuller and clearer doctrinal statement, especially, upon certain much discussed points.

We recommend non-concurrence.

3rd. A Memorial offered by E. H. Mounger and H. R. Singleton to the effect that graduates from the theological department of Vanderbilt University should not be required to pass the usual examinations on the courses of study.

We recommend non-concurrence.

4th. A Memorial offered by T. L. Mellen as follows:

To the Bishops Presiding and Members of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to be held in Dallas, Tex., beginning Wednesday, the 7th day of May, A. D., 1902:—

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: The Mississippi Annual Conference of said Church would respectfully ask that §501, page 279, Appendix 1, Book of Discipline, be amended by striking out the closing clause, which reads as follows: "except that part of Neshoba County lying north of Pearl River."

The effect of this amendment would be to put all of Neshoba County into the bounds of the Mississippi Annual Conference where the same properly belongs; and thus make the boundary line between the North Mississippi and the Mississippi Conferences continuous with the southern boundaries of Washington, Holmes, Attala, Winston and Noxubee Counties.

We recommend concurrence.

5th. A memorial offered by R. L. Bennett, Thomas A. Holloman, M. L. Burton and five others, as follows:

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to be held at Dallas, Texas, in May, 1902:

The Mississippi Conference respectfully memorializes your body to enact provisions whereby the order of deaconesses may be instituted under proper restrictions and conditions.

We recommend concurrence.

6th. A memorial offered by J. E. Carpenter as follows:

WHEREAS, we believe that the partial report to the Annual Conferences touching the Epworth League is calculated to discourage and retard its work; therefore we hereby memorialize the ensuing General Conference which meets in Dallas, Texas, next May, to provide for a blank for Annual Conference reports which will adequately set forth all the work done. A report similar to that on Sunday-schools, we believe would relieve a degree of present embarrassment, and give new impetus to the organization.

C. W. CRISLER, Chairman

H. WALTER FEATHERSTUN, Sec.

A. F. Watkins and others offered a memorial to the General Conference, asking that the lay representation in an Annual Conference be fixed upon the basis of church membership. It was referred to the Committee on Memorials.

The following account of J. A. B. Jones relative to the printing of the Minutes of 1900 was adopted:

M. L. BURTON,
W. B. LEWIS.

The following report was read by J. P. Drake, and, after being amended was adopted:

THE CONFERENCE ENDOWMENT FUND.

To the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Our Treasurer, R. J. Jones, had on hand when he closed his books for this session, the following amounts:

Invested Funds in Greenville City Bonds bearing interest at 8 per cent.....	$ 1400 00
Levee Bonds bearing interest at 6 per cent. ....	400 00
Notes of Barton Heirs bearing interest at 8 per cent. (Balance Van Houton Bequest).....	200 00
Note of our Joint Board of Finance (second) bearing interest at 10 per cent ....	2400 00
Uninvested Cash from accrued interest and partial payments. ....	701 73
Total Assets .....	$5101 73

Since his bank account was closed he has received from Rev. G. M. Barton the annual interest on the $200.00 of the Van Houton Bequest, viz.: $16.00; and $25.00 toward liquidating the principal, which is thus reduced to $175.00. The notes originally given were for $625.00. Interest has been paid very regularly and the principal gradually reduced. The sum of $1024.00 has also just been paid us by the Joint Board of Finance. We expect to invest the cash now on hand as soon as it can safely and profitably be done. We make grateful acknowledgment of the generous bequest of our dear, departed P. A. Johnston, who devoted $500.00 from his life insurance to this fund. How many will follow his godly example? We appeal to our preachers and active laymen to be on the watch for securing further donations to this fund, which promises so much substantial relief when it is sorely needed.

The following officers for the the ensuing year were elected, viz: T. L. Mellen, President; B. F. Jones, Vice-President; R. J. Jones, Treasurer; and J. P. Drake, Secretary.

In conclusion we offer the following resolution, to-wit:

Resolved, That the pastor of each charge be required to appoint some suitable member of his charge, who shall be authorized and empowered to solicit and receive contributions to the Conference Endowment Fund.

In behalf of the trustees.

J. P. DRAKE, Secretary.

The following resolution was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that when, in the judgment of the Presiding Elder, the condition of any preacher in his district is such as to demand the reference of his name to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuated or supernumerary relation, it is the duty of the Presiding Elder to advise him of his intention in this matter at least three months before the Conference session at which this course is contemplated.

C. A. POWELL,
T. L. MELLEN.

J. G. Cammack announced that a monument could be erected over the grave of J. V. Penn, late of the Mississippi Conference, at Rolling Fork, Miss., for $25 or $30; and Bro. Cammack was given the privilege of taking a collection for that purpose, and he announced having received $26.65.

J. D. Ellis read the report of the Sunday-school Board, which was adopted as follows:

To the Bishop and Brethren of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Sunday-school Board submits the following report:

RECEIPTS.

Proceeds from Children's Day .....	$166 61
From other sources .....	6 00
	<hr/> $472 61

DISBURSEMENTS.

For General Expenses .....	$ 45 97

To General Board of Education .....	47 06
To General Sunday-school Board .....	47 06
	<hr/> $471 09
Balance on hand .....	1 52

Your Board this year has distributed free of charge 14,165 Children's Day Programmes, aided 15 Sunday-schools in the supply of various literature, put a library into one school, and considerably increased the circulation of the Magazine and Sunday-school Visitor.

Your Board is pleased to report that every application during the year for aid in supplying the regular lesson helps to needy Sunday-schools has been granted. A few applications from Sunday-schools for libraries and Visitors were rejected late in the year on account of our limited means.

The Board at this time and on account of an exhausted treasury can not say how soon the proposition concerning help toward libraries can be renewed, but it stands ready to grant aid toward any and all schools unable to supply themselves with the regular lesson literature.

We report again with regret that the collections have fallen considerably behind the collections of last year, a large number of charges not having reported anything whatever; nor was Children's Day observed.

We further regret to say that some of the pastoral charges which we have so generously assisted in recent years have remitted to us very little money. We would urge upon all the pastors that Children's Day be observed as the Discipline directs and no other day be substituted in its place.

In accordance with the 243rd paragraph of Discipline, a Conference

Sunday-school Convention was held last March at McComb City and the Board is pleased to report an increased number of pastors and others in attendance.

The next Convention will be held at Utica in March or April of next year. It will be combined with a Sunday-school Institute conducted by Dr. H. M. Hamill and no effort will be spared by the Board to make it a most profitable occasion.

We respectfully call the attention of all the pastors and Sunday-school workers to the fact that the Sunday-school Convention is their institution and not that of the Sunday-school Board, and we urge that all be in attendance.

We would further call the pastors' attention and sympathy to the course of study for Sunday-school teachers prepared by the General Sunday-school Board. It is through their help that the movement set on foot can be successfully conducted and the Sunday-school teaching lifted above the haphazard methods so often employed in Sunday-school teaching.

RESOLUTION.

Resolved, By the Sunday-school Board that the Annual Conference set apart some evening of its session for a Sunday-school Anniversary.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. D. ELLIS, Secretary.

W. J. Ferguson read the report of the Committee on Bible Cause, which was amended and adopted in the following form:

BIBLE CAUSE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

We, your Committee, desire to submit the following report:

We feel that it is not necessary to consume the time of this Conference in urging the importance of the work of the American Bible Society, since all have had so many opportunities of being informed as to the great work of this most worthy institution; but will refer to the seeming neglect on the part of many members of this body in supporting said Society.

We find by reference to the statistical reports that many of the brethren pay a much larger per cent. of money collected to other causes than to the American Bible Society.

We are not ignorant of the fact that it would be a waste of money on the part of our Board of Missions to send missionaries, and our Church Extension Board to build churches, without supplying the people with the Word of God translated into their various languages, to do which the American Bible Society, when supplied with the needed funds, gives ample means.

The Society having now the urgent call for the Bible in several languages, we, therefore, recommend the continuance of the assessment for this cause and would urge all members of this Conference to make special effort to secure the full assessment.

We note with great pleasure the steady growth of this great institution.

The American Bible Society is now entering upon the 86th year of its history and during these years there have been issued 68,923,434 copies of the Holy Scriptures. In its last report it gives an increase of 149,327 volumes over the previous years and an expenditure of $39,138,296.

We are glad to note the great work among the colored people conducted by Rev. Mr. Wragg, of South Atlanta, whose aim it is to put a copy of the Bible in every colored home.

Our field agent, Rev. G. D. French, D. D., of Morristown, Tenn., has kindly offered his services to any of the brethren of this Conference, and will be glad to fill any appointments made through our Conference Secretary.

We recommend Rev. G. M. Hull as Conference Secretary.

We report Bible auxiliaries at the following places: Central Church, Meridian, Brandon, Crystal Springs and Magnolia.

The assessment of $1000 is divided among the several districts as follows: Vicksburg, $135; Natchez, $130; Jackson, $150; Forest, $135; Meridian, $150; Brookhaven, $150; Seashore, $150.

(Signed) W. J. FERGUSON, Chairman.

G. M. HULL, Secretary and Treasurer.

H. M. Ellis read Report No. 1. of the Board of Education; and Dr. W. B. Murrah, President of Millsaps, Dr. A. F. Watkins, President of Whitworth College, and Rev. L. S. Jones, President of Port Gibson Female College, addressed the Conference. The Report was then adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 1. OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Board of Education report as follows:

MILLSAPS COLLEGE.

The report from our magnificent college for boys is very gratifying and we have great cause to thank God for his blessings and guidance of its affairs. The prospects of the institution are most encouraging. The additional gift of Maj. R. W. Millsaps of grounds and buildings immediately adjoining the college greatly enhances the value of our property and gives us one of the finest college properties in the South. We also sincerely appreciate the gift of Mr. Dan. A. James of Observatory and Telescope in memory of his father and brother.

In view of the increased demands on this great institution we call upon our charges for full collections for the small amounts asked of them for this important work. We would also urge our pastors to seek every opportunity of increasing the endowment, which is altogether inadequate for the growing demands and unlimited possibilities of the future.

We recommend the re-appointment of Dr. J. A. Moore to the chair of Mathematics.

WHITWORTH FEMALE COLLEGE.

The success of this excellent and honored girls' college, as shown by the report of its Board of Trustees, is cause for rejoicing and congratulation. The many improvements made by Bros. Watkins and Burton have put it in first-class condition and made its rooms neat and comfortable. We are especially gratified that its curriculum is being brought up to the requirements of the General Board. We recommend the re-appointment of Dr. A. F. Watkins as President, and Rev. M. L. Burton as Vice-President and Business Manager.

We recommend the confirmation of the Board of Trustees: B. F. Jones, Dr. J. W. Martin, E. H. Mounger, A. C. McNair, Dr. J. T. Butler, F. B. Catchings, I. W. Lampton, Miss Addie V. Marshall, T. W. Adams, R. W. Millsaps, J. S. Sexton, I. C. Enochs, L. L. Lampton and W. C. Wilkinson. The President and Vice-President are ex-officio members.

EAST MISSISSIPPI FEMALE COLLEGE.

The reports of the President and Board of Trustees indicate the continuance of its marvelous growth and prosperity, and the enlargements and improvements are still being pressed for the future needs of the institution. We are glad to receive the report of the Board of Trustees, submitting their names for confirmation by the Conference, as follows: L. P. Brown, B. V. White, W. H. Curtis, J. A. Gulley, J. B. Chatfield, J. C. Cavett, Dr. T. K. Krouse, G. H. Galloway, C. P. Weatherbee, R. J. Jones, T. C. Harmon, J. A. Lewis, T. C. Wyatt, J. E. Watts, B. F. Lewis, W. H. Ormond, J. R. Enochs, W. C. Black, D. D., the confirmation of which we recommend.

It is recommended that the present Board of Trustees be requested to secure such amendments to the present charter, or, if need be, such new charter, as shall conform to the conditions set forth in the original deed of conveyance, and align the College with other educational institutions which are under the patronage and control of the Mississippi Conference; and that the present Board of Trustees shall become Trustees of the new or amended charter.

PORT GIBSON FEMALE COLLEGE.

Rev. L. S. Jones, President of Port Gibson Female College, has done excellent work for this institution and we rejoice with him in the large success he has achieved. The improvements made and buildings being erected add much to the value of that fine property and we trust his largest expectations will be realized. We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. L. S. Jones to the presidency of the College.

The Board of Trustees have handed us the names of their members for confirmation by the Conference, which we recommend to be done, viz.: L. A. Smith, H. C. Mounger, Jas. B. Allen, E. S. Drake, H. H. Crisler, C. C. Goza, Thos. Mount, G. E. Ellis, G. W. Humphreys, and the Presiding Elder and Pastor at Port Gibson are members ex officio.

EDWARD M'GEHEE FEMALE COLLEGE.

From the statistics we judge this institution is doing well but for some reason we have failed to receive a report, except the names of the members of the Board of Trustees which we recommend to be confirmed. They are: Chas. G. McGehee, J. H. Jones, Jas. M. Sessions, George H. Peets, George T. McGehee, T. O. Woods, L. T. Ventress, R. M. McGehee, D. C. Bramlette, L. A. Murdock, John S. Cobb, H. M. Quin, W. P. S. Ventress, J. H. Redhead, J. W. McQueen, W. L. C. Hunnicutt.

PAINE AND LANE INSTITUTES.

We would reaffirm our interest in these worthy and useful institutions and congratulate them on their achievements and prospects. We recommend the same assessment of $300.00 as for last year.

FOREST DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL.

We are glad to learn from its report that this training school for our colleges is being well patronized and is doing good work. We recommend it most heartily to the people of that district.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

For the second year we have failed to receive any communication from this great and thoroughly equipped institution, but we give it our hearty endorsement and good wishes, and call the attention of our people to the magnificent advantages it offers and urge them to liberal and faithful use thereof. We regret that its Biblical department has not received more from the Twentieth Century offerings but trust that it will yet secure the liberal endowment that its success and large usefulness require.

CORRELATION.

We again recommend that all our educational institutions conform their courses of study as rapidly as possible to the recommendations of the General Board of Education and class themselves accordingly.

EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS.

The following statistics are reported:

Number of Institutions .....	6
Value of Property .....	$210,800 00
Endowment .....	$110,500 00
Professors and Teachers .....	74
Pupils .....	1047

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSMENTS.

We have received this year from educational collections $1659.87, which is an increase over last year of $289.07.

We have divided this as follows:

Millsaps College .....	$1227 37
Paine and Lane Institutes .....	210 00
General Board .....	190 00
Printing Minutes .....	32 50
Total Paid Out .....	$1659 87

ASSESMENTS.

We respectfully recommend the following as the educational assessment for the ensuing year:

For Millsaps College .....	$1750 00
For Paine and Lane Institutes .....	300 00
For General Board .....	272 00
Total Assessment for 1902 .....	$2322 00

We recommend the following apportionment of this among the Districts:

Vicksburg District .....	$290 00
Jackson District .....	370 00
Forest District .....	302 00
Meridian District .....	330 00
Seashore District .....	370 00
Brookhaven District .....	370 00
Natchez District .....	290 00

W. H. HUNTLEY, President.

H. M. ELLIS, Secretary.

H. C. Brown read the following, which was adopted :

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

To the President and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference :

Your Committee, appointed to examine District Conference Records, submit the following report:

We have examined the records of the Jackson, Forest, Seashore, Brookhaven, Vicksburg Natchez and Meridian Districts, and find that each has been neatly and correctly kept.

The record of the Jackson District deserves special mention as it is a model of neatness.

We would suggest to the Secretaries of the Meridian, Brookhaven, Natchez and Vicksburg Districts that each of these Records would be greatly improved by the addition of a marginal index.

Respectfully submitted,

H. C. BROWN, Secretary.

It was moved and carried that the Conference hold an afternoon session, beginning at 3 o'clock.

P. D. Hardin read Report No. 1. of the Joint Board of Finance. Upon motion of J. M. Weems, that part of the report making appropriation to the children of G. W. Ferrer was referred back to the Board for a second report; and Report No. 1 was then adopted as follows :

REPORT NO. 1, JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference :

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Joint Board of Finance submit the following report for the year 1901:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The proper observance of the Christian Sabbath is fundamentally essential to the maintenance and spread of Christ's kingdom in the world. Without the Sabbath we would soon have no church; without the church, no Bible; without the Bible, no God; without God, no true religion, but rank heathenism and universal diabolism would prevail. It may be confidently affirmed that had not a Sabbath been divinely designated, devout men would need to set apart a portion of time for the special consideration of eternal things that all the affections and energies of man might not be absorbed in the things of this life.

If the maintenance of the Christian Sabbath is essential to man's spiritual welfare, it is likewise indispensable to his highest worldly interests. The Sabbath was made for man in the fullest and broadest sense, and disregard of it leads to no good for this world or the next.

"A Sabbath well spent brings a week of content,
And assures us health for the morrow;
But a Sabbath profaned, whate'er may be gained,
Is a certain forerunner of sorrow."

When a man undertakes to cheat God he always cheats himself. The strength of God's laws lies in the eternal self-executing retributiveness of their violation. The Sabbath is for man, that man may be for God. Hence every true lover of the human race must be a friend of the Sabbath. It is at once the support of Christianity and the bulwark of civilization.

The ordinary low conception of the Sabbath as only a day on which men are forbidden to work is entirely beneath its heavenly significance. The Christian Sabbath, or Lord's day, (usually, but not Scripturally, called Sunday) as commemorating the resurrection of Christ, is indeed the golden day of the church on earth. Let christendom rejoice in the fact that while the Jewish Sabbath commemorates the creation of the world, the Christian Sabbath commemorates its redemption by Jesus Christ. If the old Sabbath was glorious, this then excels in glory. Hence the change of the day from the seventh to the first day of the week.

" 'Twas great to speak the world from nought,
'Twas greater to redeem."

The keeping of the Sabbath holy is a heavenly festival to which when all are invited, all make excuses why they cannot come. There is an immeasurable distance between the slave who merely obeys the law, by ceasing to labor on the holy day and the child of God who

" Leaves the world one day in seven
To spend the sacred hours in heaven," reveling in the ineffable delights of the New Jerusalem.

Yet all the world and a large part of the church hold the Sabbath in such low esteem that appeal has to be made to civil law and police to save the day from utter desecration. But let it be borne in mind that while legal restrictions may prevent the grosser violations of the Sabbath, nothing but a deeper and more general realization, especially among Christians, of the divine uses and heavenly experiences which the day was intended to promote can ever make the Lord's day what its Author designed it to be.

A communication from Dr. Edward Thompson, General Manager of the Sunday League of America, which was referred to this committee, has been considered and we cordially commend the objects and work of the League to the favor and co-operation of our ministers and members everywhere. There is danger that uninstructed foreigners and the thoughtless and vicious of our own land will turn our Sunday of rest into a day of wicked amusement or criminal indulgence. Let our Sabbath be preserved, negatively, by reducing labor to a minimum of works of real mercy or necessity, thereby leaving all free to seek the higher spiritual objects of the day; and positively, by a more joyous consecration of its sacred hours to God.

Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will strive to avoid unnecessary work, buying or selling, traveling, cooking and all other violations of the Sabbath, and will endeavor to realize those high spiritual experiences which the day was intended to promote, "not doing our own ways nor finding our own pleasure, nor speaking our own words, but making the Sabbath a delight, holy to the Lord and honorable."

W. L. C. HUNNICUTT, Chairman.

The following Resolution of Thanks to Major Millsaps was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Conference that our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to Maj. R. W. Millsaps for the donation to Millsaps College of the very excellent property consisting of grounds and buildings immediately adjoining the College and valued at $35,000.00.

REPORT NO. 2. OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE—A MEMORIAL CONCERNING LAY REPRESENTATION IN THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE,

signed by A. F. Watkins, H. G. Hawkins and others.

WHEREAS, the last General Conference made provision for the enlargement of Presiding Elder's Districts, and

WHEREAS, A difference in usage among the Annual Conferences in this matter will cause the proportion of laymen in the Annual Conference to be unequal, and

WHEREAS, This inequality in the lay representation in the Annual Conference will cause inequality in both lay and clerical representation in the General Conference, and

WHEREAS, The lay delegates are the special representatives of the membership at large, therefore,

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to meet in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1902, to so change our law as to provide for the election of one lay delegate to the Annual Conference for every thousand members in the Presiding Elder's Districts provided that a fraction of two-thirds shall be entitled to an additional delegate, and provided further, that every district shall be allowed at least one delegate.

In order to carry out the provisions of the above we suggest the following change in the Discipline, to wit:

On page 24, ¶44, substitute for the words: "and four lay representatives * * * * * from each Presiding Elder's District," the words: "and one lay representative for every one thousand members within each Presiding Elder's District; provided that when there shall be in any Presiding Elder's District a fraction of two-thirds of the number fixed for the ratio of representation, such districts shall be entitled to an additional delegate for such fraction; and provided also that no district shall be denied the privilege of one delegate; and provided also that one delegate from each Presiding Elder's District may be a local preacher.

We recommend concurrence.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD REPORT.

The Epworth League Board would submit the following report:

We are glad to report continued progress in this department of our work. According to the report of our General Secretary, based on the statistics of our "General Minutes," we now have 3399 Chapters with a membership of 120,236. The membership is constantly increasing and while we rejoice in this, the most encouraging aspect of the movement is evinced in the following testimony which our Secretary brings: "Our young people's movement," he says, "is settling down to those conditions of quiet and steady work, that long ago made the Sunday-school so great a power in the churches of christendom." The growth of intelligence in carrying out the purpose of the League has been quite commensurate with the enlargement of the organization itself. "The missionary enthusiasm which began spontaneously in the League seven years ago, continues unabated; and the material fruits of it have been the growth of missionary and general intelligence and grace in giving; and many tens of thousands of dollars returned to the coffers of the Mission Board." We note with peculiar pleasure that the literary work has of late shown signs of increased activity, the sale of the reading course last year having exceeded that of the former year by six thousand volumes. In view of the demonstrated and growing usefulness of this work, we most affectionately urge upon both preachers and presiding elders to join in an effort for the speedy organization of every district to promote the purpose and work of the League.

The Epworth Era edited by an honored and competent member of this body, Rev. H. M. DuBose, D. D., we believe was never so adequate to the needs of our young people as now. And we most heartily commend it. We would also call attention to the State League Conference which can be made a source of enlightenment and inspiration to the entire work, if every Chapter would but know its opportunity in this respect. We desire also to call very special attention to the Tri-State Conference School of Methods., which is held every summer at the 'Seashore' near Biloxi. The purpose of the school is to make of the young people, especially of the patronizing states, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, more skilled laborers for the Master; and we would urge each League in our Conference to have one or more representatives attend this school, that the knowledge and enthusiasm gendered there may reach every Chapter, thus accentuating the general efficiency.

J. E. CARPENTER, Secretary.

The following was adopted :

Resolved, That this Conference is grateful to Bishop Morrison for giving us time to look after the business of the Church in our bounds.

J. M. WEEMS,
C. W. CRISLER,
H. G. HAWKINS.

L. Carley read the the following, which was adopted as the report on THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference :

DEAR BRETHREN:—We have given the subject submitted to us careful attention. We find many encouraging signs of prosperity. Among these we note the material advancement of the church in all departments of work. In church and parsonage buildings we are keeping pace with former years. The ministry is better supported than ever before, and the collections for the various enterprises of the Church are constantly increasing. The patronage of our schools has never been surpassed. The adaptations of our church papers to their peculiar work was never greater, our Sunday-school facilities have never been equalled, and our ministry was never more efficient and wide awake to the responsibility of its high calling. The young people of the church are being enlisted in religious work as never before, and an unprecedented number of laborers are being provided for the different fields of religious enterprise. Perhaps the most notable evidence of the Lord's presence in the church is the deepening and widening of the missionary spirit. For all these things we thank God and take courage.

Notwithstanding there are so many evidences of life in the church, we would not close our eyes to the fact that there are hindrances in the way. "For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel." The spirituality of the church does not seem to be as deep as its material prosperity would indicate. There is much lack of Bible reading, and also of secret and family prayer. Many of our people are worldly-minded and take but little interest in the essential experiences and practices of a truly religious life. The circulation of religious literature is not at all commensurate with the number, intelligence, and financial ability of our people. The increasing spirit of Sabbath desecration on the part of the world, is affecting the life of the church to an alarming extent. The habit of gambling, so fascinating to unspiritual people, is another evil threatening, especially, the young manhood of the church. Against these dangers it is necessary for the watchmen on the walls of Zion to stand up with unceasing vigilance and heroic courage. Then will the church of the living God "look forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners."

In conclusion, we offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to diligence in the cultivation of every spiritual grace, and to fidelity in guarding the church against the dangers that surround us.

L. CARLEY, Chairman.

The following was adopted;

In view of the excellence of the reports on Sabbath Observance and the State of the Church,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Your Board of Church Extension beg leave to submit the following report:

The books of our Treasurer show the collections to be greatly in advance of those of the last year, viz., about seventy-three per cent. of the assessment, or thirteen per cent. above last year's collections.

We are glad to note the fact that the discrimination complained of heretofore is not so great this year. We believe our claim to be a worthy one, equal in importance to that of the Foreign or Domestic Missions as there can be no permanence to the efforts of either without houses of worship.

We earnestly recommend that the Presiding Elders of the several Districts bring the interest of this Board as prominently before the District Conference, as the interests of other Boards of our church.

Your Board would re-affirm the importance of having applications in hand by the first of October of each year. This will give an opportunity to look fully into the merits of the claims and in some instances to have members of our Board visit the charges from which the applications come.

We suggest the following assessments on the several Districts:

Vicksburg District .....	$ 490 00
Jackson District .....	540 00

The following Report of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Missionary Society was read by J. P. Drake and accepted by the Conference Board of Church Extension as a part of their report and as such was adopted by the Conference:

CHURCH EXTENSION BOARD REPORT, SUPPLEMENTARY.

The figures furnished us by the Treasurer of the W. H. M. Society were lost in transit. We believe they measure up to the past: but a great increase should mark each year. Securing good homes for our pastors and maintaining them is enough to warrant our heartfelt co-operation. There is much other work which this society contemplates that cannot be as well done in any other way. Shall we not help these women who labor with us in the Gospel? The total number of members added to the Society during the year was only 22. Out of a church membership of women and girls of 25,000, the total membership in this great organization is only 795. Think of only a little more than three per cent. of our women engaged in this work! It is high time for us to awake.

H. W. Van Hook read the following report of the Board of Missions which was adopted:

The following report of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was read by J. P. Drake and adopted as part of the report of the Board of Missions.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSION REPORT.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of our Conference, has done good work during the year. Their last Annual Report shows $1952.00 raised. Miss Leila McNemar, sent out from this Conference and now serving the Woman's Board as teacher in "Collegio Anglais," at Saltillo, Mexico, has lately sent a check for $40.00 to support a pupil one year at that institution. This amount taken from her meager salary represents the spirit of sacrifice and service that shames us at home into fuller consecration of our means.

The laborious and capable Corresponding Secretary, Miss Sallie Smylie, has organized several new Societies. Let our pastors in every way possible help and encourage these good women. They look to us to open the way. Disappoint them not !

A resolution on inter-collegiate games was offered; and it called forth the liveliest debate of the Conference session. It was moved and passed that the vote on the resolution be a rising vote. Bishop Morrison, T. M. Evans, G. S. Harmon, C. F. Emery, N. B. Harmon, L. S. Jones, and I. L. Peebles spoke in favor of the resolution; T. L. Mellen, A. F. Watkins, J. W. Chambers and H. W. Van Hook spoke against the resolution.

The resolution was then adopted by a vote of 89 to 12.

Resolved, That we are gratified at the fact that no inter-collegiate games have been allowed by the authorities of Millsaps College during the past year, and this deference to the expressed views of the Conference challenges our confidence and our loyal regard.

That we deprecate the fact that the authorities at Vanderbilt University still permit inter-collegiate games, and we hereby reaffirm the position taken by the Conference at the last session in regard to inter-collegiate games.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Mississippi Annual Conference:

Your Committee on Temperance beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with very great pleasure the growing sentiment among the officials of our State against the blind tigers, and the illegal sale of whiskey in any way. We especially rejoice to know that several of the Judges in our State are, in their official capacity, using such drastic measures against the illegal sale of liquor as are proving effectual in many instances, and working great good for the cause of temperance. We believe the time has come when the Mississippi Conference, and the members of the M. E. Church, South, within our bounds, who have always been in the fore-front of the battle against open saloons and the intemperate use of intoxicating drinks in every form, should buckle on their armor and move forward by advocating the banishment the open saloon from our State.

To this end be it therefore

Resolved, 1st: That Gov. Longino is hereby requested to suggest to the Legislature in his message to that body, which assembles on Tuesday, January 7th, 1902, to consider the question of State prohibition.

Resolved, 2nd: That the members of our State Legislature are hereby requested to pass a law that will give us State prohibition.

Resolved, 3rd: That the Secretary be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to Gov. Longino, and also to the Clerk of the Senate and of the Lower House, to be by them presented to their respective bodies.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. NORTON, Chairman,

H. J. MOORE, Secretary.

It was moved and carried that the resolution on State prohibition passed at a former sitting of this Conference be incorporated into the above Report on Temperance.

M. M. Black read the following Resolution of Thanks which was amended and adopted by a rising vote.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Resolved, 1st: That we hereby tender to the good people of McComb City our heart-felt thanks for their generous hospitality, manifested in so many ways, and invoke the Divine blessing to rest richly upon them.

Resolved, 2nd: That we sincerely appreciate the kindness of the various Protestant churches of McComb City in offering us their houses of worship for use on the Sabbath.

Resolved, 3rd: That we thank the various railroads within the bounds of our territory for courtesies in the matter of transportation.

Resolved, 4th: That we thank the New Orleans Times-Democrat and Picayune, the Jackson News and Clarion-Ledger and the McComb City Daily for giving full reports of our Conference proceedings.

Resolved, 5th: That we are deeply grateful to our skilful and efficient Secretaries for their faithful service and to the McComb City pastor, Rev. J. W. Chambers, for his faithful and untiring efforts in providing for our comfort and entertainment.

M. M. BLACK,
C. F. EMERY.
